- Summer Program Staff

  In addition to the College faculty and admissions staff who run the Summer Program, current students and recent alumni of the College serve on the program as “prefects.” They come from around the country and hold in common a deep appreciation for the College and for the intellectual life cultivated on the campus throughout the year. These prefects live in the residence halls with the students and join them in their day-to-day activities outside of class. They are also responsible for the comfort and safety of the students, and for ensuring that the rules are observed.

- Campus Rules:

  Simply put, students are expected to be considerate of one another at all times. Dress, grooming, and language should reflect respect for others. Christian decency, neatness, and cleanliness are expected of all students both inside and outside their residence hall rooms.

  The men’s and women’s residence halls are always off-limits to the opposite sex. The other residence halls on campus are also off-limits during the Summer Program. Dormitories will be locked at 10:30 p.m. each night — all students must be in by this time.

  An important goal of the Summer Program is to provide an intellectually rich and stimulating environment in which students have the opportunity to get to know each other through conversation, both inside and outside the classroom. Our experience has been that electronic media can distract from meaningful conversation and building friendships. For this reason we ask students to leave iPads, tablets, laptops, portable movie players, etc. at home. Students may use their phones, iPods, etc., for music during individual exercise, but we ask that they not use them on the main campus grounds or in common social areas during the Summer Program.

Students may not leave the boundary of the campus at any time without prior permission of a Summer Program staff member. Areas of the lower campus are off-limits after dark. The civil law is to be obeyed on and off campus.

- Dress:
  For the sake of formality in the classroom, as well as modesty, the College observes a dress code throughout the academic year, and during the Summer Program.

  - For classes, meals (except dinner), and Mass in the College chapel:
    Men wear presentable khakis or slacks (jeans or similarly casual pants, e.g. pants with pockets on the outside, are not acceptable), collared shirts, and dress shoes. Semi-formal banquet: Students may wish to bring a suit or coat and tie for a semi-formal banquet at the end of the program.

  - For sports, recreation, and casual wear:
    Men wear jeans or shorts. Shirts are required at all times on campus, except on the athletic field and basketball courts.

  - For study hall and Rosary in the College chapel:
    Men wear pants or jeans and long- or short-sleeved shirts. Shorts are not worn at these times.

  - Excursions:
    In addition to a trip to the beach, there will be opportunities for hiking in the Los Padres National Forest, which borders the campus. Please bring comfortable hiking clothing, sunscreen, a beach towel, and appropriate swimwear.

  - Miscellaneous:
    Students will be provided with bath towels, washcloths, bed linens, blankets, and pillows. Laundry detergent, washers, and dryers are available for use in the residence halls, free of charge.

    Students should bring:
    - Personal toiletries
    - The Bible for seminars on the book of Genesis
    - Sunscreen
    - Beach towel
    - Water bottle (label it with your name!)

    Students may also wish to bring:
    - Spending money for bookstore and off-campus gift purchases
    - Journal
    - Camera
    - Musical instruments (acoustic only, please!)
