
THOMAS AQUINAS COLLEGE
FINANCIAL AID APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS
2025-2026

U.S. Students

California and New England Campuses

All forms, including tax returns, are due by March 3, 2025.*

To apply for financial aid, follow these simple steps:

Step 1: Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on-line by March 3, 2025 at <https://studentaid.gov>. The FAFSA is used to determine a student's eligibility for federal and state grants and federal loans. It is also required of all U.S. citizens and permanent residents seeking institutional aid from the College.

Step 2: Complete Thomas Aquinas College's Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA) (this form) by March 3, 2025. The CFAA is used to determine a student's eligibility for Thomas Aquinas College's institutional need-based work-study program and tuition grant program.

Upload your completed CFAA through the Financial Aid Office's secure file portal found at <https://www.thomasaquinas.edu/financialaid/fa-upload>, or send it by mail.

Step 3: All institutional aid applicants must submit a signed copy of parents' 2023 federal tax return to the Financial Aid Office at Thomas Aquinas College by March 3, 2025.

- Sign the copy of your tax return (or make a copy of the signed return). Be sure to attach:
 - All W-2s;
 - All schedules and attachments sent to the IRS; and
 - All SSA-1099s (Social Security Benefit Statements) for parents and all dependents within the family (if applicable)

Upload a digital copy of your tax documents through the Financial Aid Office's secure file portal found at <https://www.thomasaquinas.edu/financialaid/fa-upload>, or send the documents by mail.

Step 4: Complete a Cal Grant Application (if applicable). You should complete a Cal Grant application if:

- You are a resident of California and
- You will be an incoming freshman (Class of '29) or a rising sophomore (Class of '28) in 2025-26 and
- You do not already have a four-year Cal Grant award.

To apply for a Cal Grant, you must complete the FAFSA and you must also submit a Cal Grant GPA Verification Form to the California Student Aid Commission by March 3, 2025.

Additional helpful information about Cal Grants can be found on our website at: <https://www.thomasaquinas.edu/financialaid/types-financial-aid-available/cal-grants>.

Massachusetts residents are not eligible to receive a MassGrant at our Northfield campus, but if a Massachusetts resident would have been eligible for a MassGrant, it is likely that his need-based aid from Thomas Aquinas College will fill any need that would have been filled by the MassGrant.

Financial Aid Deadlines for Incoming Freshmen:

Incoming freshmen must submit the FAFSA, CFAA and tax returns by March 3, 2025 or 15 days after acceptance, whichever is later. California residents, however, must complete their Cal Grant GPA Verification Form by March 3, 2025 in order to be considered for a Cal Grant. This is a firm deadline for the Cal Grant.

QUESTIONS? Contact the Financial Aid Office at (805) 421-5936 or by e-mail at finaid@thomasaquinas.edu.

Tuition	$31,000
Housing & Food	$11,400
Total Direct Costs	$42,400

Information regarding other indirect expenses, such as book expense, pocket money, etc. can be found on the College's website at <https://www.thomasquinas.edu/financialaid/cost-attendance>.

Section B – Student's and Parents' Proposed Payment toward Tuition and Housing & Food

Thomas Aquinas College receives no campus-based subsidy from Church or State. It relies rather on the good faith effort of its students and their parents to pay as much as they are able toward the cost of the student's education. Students and parents are expected to make a maximum effort to cover the costs of tuition and housing & food from their own resources. Each year the College seeks charitable contributions from individuals and charitable foundations to make up the difference between what families are able to pay and the actual cost of education.

The questions in Section B ask you and your parents to generously and prayerfully consider how much you are able to pay toward your cost of tuition and housing & food at Thomas Aquinas College. The Church urges the Christian faithful to be generous in their support of apostolic works, including Catholic education, and to provide for the sustenance of those who carry out these ministries (cf. Canon Law 222, 800.2). Many families include what they pay toward Catholic education as part of their overall charitable giving. (You cannot deduct tuition payments as a charitable contribution for tax purposes, but you or your parents may be eligible for an education tax credit.)

In order to maintain fairness and equity, the Financial Aid Office also uses a uniform need-analysis formula to make a more mathematical determination of each family's payment responsibility. If a family's proposal exceeds the figure determined by the need-analysis formula, the Financial Aid Office will gratefully assemble a financial aid package that fits with the family's payment proposal. On the other hand, if the need-analysis formula indicates a payment that is larger than the family's proposal, the financial aid package will be determined by the need-analysis formula.

Section E – Student's Assets

4. As of today, what is the student's total current balance of cash, savings and checking accounts?$ _____

Do not subtract outstanding credit card balances or other bills, but you can use your cash, savings and checking accounts to pay off those debts before completing this form and, in that way, reduce your reported assets.

5. As of today, what is the net worth of the student's investments, including real estate?$ _____

Net worth is the value of the investments minus any debts owed against them.

Do not include the value of qualified educational benefits and savings plans* -- those are reported in the parents' asset section.

6. As of today, what is the net worth of the student's businesses and investment farms?$ _____

Enter the net worth of the student's businesses or for-profit agricultural operations. Net worth is the value of the businesses or farms minus any debts owed against them.

*Qualified educational benefits and education savings plans are reported in the parents' asset section of this Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA). This may be different than the way these benefits and savings plans are reported on your FAFSA form. See below for more information:

Differences in how Qualified Education Plans are reported on the CFAA versus the FAFSA
Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA)	Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
Qualified educational benefits and education savings plans (such as 529 college savings plans, or the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition, or Coverdell savings accounts) are reported in the parents' asset section of this Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA).	If the student is required to report parent information on the FAFSA form, qualified education benefits or education savings accounts must be reported as an investment asset of the parent. If the student is not required to report parent information on the FAFSA form, the education benefit or savings account is reported as an investment asset of the student.

UGMA and UTMA accounts are considered an asset of the student and must be reported as an investment asset of the student on the CFAA and on the FAFSA form.

Section G – Divorced or Separated Parents

9. Are parents divorced or separated? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If you checked "yes", a Noncustodial Parent Statement must be completed by the noncustodial parent. The Noncustodial Parent Statement is available from the College's website. Go to <https://www.thomasaquinas.edu/financialaid/forms-and-publications>.

A signed copy of the noncustodial parent's (and spouse's) 2023 tax return must also be submitted, complete with all W-2s, schedules, attachments and any SSA-1099s. Tax information can be uploaded through the Financial Aid Office's secure file portal found at <https://www.thomasaquinas.edu/financialaid/fa-upload>.

10. Date of divorce or separation: _____

11. a. According to court order, when will support for the student end? _____

b. Is there an agreement specifying a contribution for the student's education? ☐ Yes ☐ No

If "yes," please attach a copy of the agreement.

Completing the FAFSA, the Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA) and the Noncustodial Parent Statement (NPS) in 2025-26

In situations where parents are divorced or separated, the determination of the "parent of record" on the FAFSA is made in this specific order:

- 1) The parent of record is the parent who provided the greater portion of the student's financial support during the 12 months immediately prior to filing the FAFSA, even if the student does not live with that parent.
- 2) If neither parent provided support in the 12-month period in #1, the parent of record is the parent who provided the greater portion of support during the most recent year that the student received financial support from a parent.
- 3) If both parents claim an equal amount of support, then the parent of record is the parent with the greater amount of income and assets.

But when completing the Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA) (this form) and the Noncustodial Parent Statement (NPS), Thomas Aquinas College requires that the parent with whom the student lived the most in the past 12 months, (the "custodial parent") complete the CFAA while the other parent complete the NPS.

If you have any questions in this regard, call the Financial Aid Office at (805) 421-5936 or send an e-mail to finaid@thomasaquinas.edu. We will be happy to help you.

Parents, if you want the Financial Aid Office to take into account any decrease in your income in 2024 (compared to 2023), you must provide documentation of your decreased income (e.g., a 2024 year-end paystub showing year-to-date income totals).

Section I – Parents' Projected 2025 Income

13. Parents, do you anticipate that your 2025 gross income (taxable + untaxable income) will be significantly different than it was in 2024 (for example, a new job, retirement, etc.)? We consider a "significant difference" to be a change of 10% or more (plus or minus).

☐ No, my 2025 gross income (taxable + untaxable income) will not be significantly different than it was in 2024.

If yes, please explain the change and give the approximate dollar amount of your anticipated 2025 gross income (taxable + untaxable income):

Section J – Parents' Assets

Instructions for Section J:

Net worth means the current value, as of today, of rental properties, investments, businesses, and/or investment farms, minus debts related to those same rental properties, investments, businesses, and/or investment farms. When calculating net worth, use 0 for properties or investments with a negative value.

Investments: Investments are reported differently on this Confidential Financial Aid Application (CFAA) compared to how they are reported on the FAFSA. On the CFAA, we ask you to separate out (a) qualified education benefits and education savings plans, and (b) rental properties from other reportable investments. (See questions 15, 16 and 17 below.)

Investments include trust funds, money market funds, mutual funds, certificates of deposit, stocks, stock options, bonds, other securities, installment and land sale contracts (including mortgages held), commodities, unrented real estate (e.g., vacant land, a second home), etc.

Investments do not include the home in which you live, the value of life insurance, ABLE accounts, retirement plans (401[k] plans, pension funds, annuities, noneducation IRAs, Keogh plans, etc.), cash, savings, and checking accounts reported in question 14, qualified educational benefits and education savings plans reported in question 16, rental properties reported in question 17.

Investments also do not include UGMA and UTMA accounts for which you are the custodian but not the owner. (UGMA and UTMA accounts are considered assets of the student and must be reported as an investment asset of the student.)

Investment value means the current balance or market value of these investments as of today. Investment debt means only those debts that are related to the investments.

Qualified educational benefits and education savings plans (such as 529 college savings plans, or the refund value of 529 prepaid tuition, or Coverdell savings accounts) are reported separately from investments on this CFAA. This is different than the way these savings plans and benefits are reported on the FAFSA form. (See the FAFSA instructions for how qualified educational benefits and education savings plans should be reported on that form.)

Rental properties are reported separately from investments on this CFAA. This is different than the way these assets are reported on the FAFSA form. (See the FAFSA instructions for how rental properties should be reported on that form.)

Businesses and investment farms include businesses that you own (including a small or family-run business) or income-producing farms that you own (including the fair market value of land, buildings, livestock, unharvested crops, and machinery actively used in investment farms, agricultural, or commercial activities).

Businesses and investment farms do not include the value of crops that are grown solely for consumption by the student and his family or the home in which you live. If the home in which you live is also located on a farm that you own, do not include the net value of that principal residence in the net value of all farm assets. The principal residence may include the home, structures, and land that are adjacent to the home that are not being used, stored, or sold for farming or other commercial activities.

Questions? If you have any questions about how assets should be reported on the CFAA, call the Financial Aid Office at (805) 421-5936 or send an e-mail to finaid@thomasquinas.edu. We will be happy to help you.

These are different divisions than on the FAFSA. Please read the instructions given here carefully.

14. As of today, what is parents' total current balance of cash, savings and checking accounts? $
Do not subtract outstanding credit card balances or other bills, but you can use your cash, savings and checking accounts to pay off those debts before completing this form and, in that way, reduce your reported assets.

(a) qualified education benefits and education savings plans (These are reported in question 16.)
(b) rental properties (These are reported in question 17.)
See the instructions above for what should be included as an investment asset on this form. The home in which you live is never reported as an investment asset. Net worth is the value of investments minus any debts owed against them.

16. As of today, what is the value of qualified education benefits and education savings plans
