○ Summer Program Staff

In addition to the College faculty and Admissions staff who run the Summer Program, current students and recent alumni serve on the program as prefects. They come from around the country and hold in common a deep appreciation for the College and for the intellectual life cultivated on the campus. These prefects live in the residence halls with the students and join them in their day-to-day activities outside of class. They are also responsible for the comfort and safety of the students, and to ensure that program rules are observed.

○ Campus Rules

Simply put, students are expected to be considerate of one another at all times. Dress, grooming, and language should reflect respect for others. Christian decency, neatness, and cleanliness are expected of all students both inside and outside their residence hall rooms.

The men's and women's residence halls are always off-limits to the opposite sex. The other residence halls on campus are also off-limits during the Summer Program. Dormitory doors will be locked at 10:30 p.m. each night — all students must be in their dorms by this time.

An important goal of the Summer Program is to provide an intellectually rich and stimulating environment in which students have the opportunity to get to know each other through conversation, both inside and outside the classroom. Our experience has been that electronic media can distract from meaningful conversation and building friendships. For this reason we ask that students not bring tablets, laptops, portable movie players, etc. to the summer program.

Students may use their phones (headphones/earbuds only) for music during individual exercise, except in the climbing wall room, where no music is allowed for safety reasons. The College has a custom of keeping the classrooms, library and dining commons free of cell phones at all times. In keeping with this custom, we ask that you leave them in your rooms during classes, at mass, during mealtimes, and during the study periods.

Students may not leave the campus at any time without prior permission of a Summer Program staff member. The lower campus is off-limits after dark. The civil law is to be obeyed on and off campus.

○ Dress

For the sake of formality in the classroom, as well as modesty, the College observes a dress code throughout the academic year, and during the Summer Program.

- For classes, meals (except dinner), and Mass in the College chapel:

Women wear skirts or dresses with hemlines below the knee, and dress shoes or dress sandals (not casual or athletic type). Shirts and tops should have modest necklines, cover the shoulders, and not be tight-fitting. Slacks are not worn at these times. Semi-formal attire: Students may wish to bring semi-formal attire for the banquet at the end of the program.

- For sports, recreation, and casual wear:

Jeans, longer shorts, T-shirts, or wide-strapped tank tops may be worn (clothing should be modest and not tight-fitting). Shoes must be worn when playing soccer and field sports.

- For Rosary in the College chapel and study hall:

Students are welcome to dress more casually in pants, jeans, or capris, and shirts that cover the shoulders. Shorts are not to be worn at these times.

- Excursions:

In addition to a trip to the beach, there will be opportunities for hiking. Please bring comfortable hiking clothing and shoes, sunscreen, a beach towel, and swimwear (bathing suits should cover the midriff and have modest necklines).

○ Miscellaneous

Students will be provided with bath towels, washcloths, bed linens, blankets, and pillows. Washers, and dryers are available for use in the residence halls, free of charge; laundry detergent is provided.
